Management has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Organization, and has concluded that, as of May 31, 2023, there are no uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability or asset or disclosure in the financial statements. The Organization is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in question. Management believes it is no longer subject to tax examinations for years prior to May 31, 2018.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts

IISME's Conflict of Interest Policy for employees monitoring and enforcement process: IISME's Conflict of Interest policy is included in IISME's Employee Handbook. All employees are obligated to report potential or actual conflicts of interest to their supervisor for determination. This policy is further monitored and enforced by IISME's management team in the same manner that all other employee policies are monitored and enforced, including corrective and disciplinary action.

IISME's Conflict of Interest Policy for Board Members monitoring and enforcement process: Annually, in December, Board members are asked to review and update their completed form. A list is kept of the disclosed affiliations. In selecting vendors/supplier, grant/gift recipients, or other beneficiaries, if any candidates are on this list, then extra care is taken to avoid even the appearance of favoritism/conflict of interest, to ensure that the selection process is fair, unbiased and that IISME and its programs benefit from the selection.

The HR Committee meets to discuss recommendations for executive/key employee raises, when appropriate.
